WELCOME TO FOURTH STREET CLINIC

For more than 27 years, Fourth Street Clinic has helped homeless Utahns improve their health and quality of life by providing high quality health care and support services.

By increasing homeless Utahns' access to primary care, Fourth Street Clinic is a major partner in promoting community health, ending homelessness and achieving across-the-board health care savings.

HISTORY

The mid-1980s brought a dramatic rise in Salt Lake City's homeless population. During this time, Salt Lake City's downtown was revitalized and several substandard, single-room occupancy hotels that offered rooms for just a few dollars a night and required no leases were razed and redeveloped. In total, 800 low-income housing units were torn down, displacing 1,000 very poor residents from their homes and jobs. With no public plan to rapidly re-house or support these residents, homelessness moved from a sporadic, temporary experience to endemic and intergenerational.

To fill the service gap, nonprofits such as Fourth Street Clinic began to form. Founded in 1988, Fourth Street Clinic began as a triage clinic staffed with one part-time nurse who relied heavily on hospitals for patient treatments.

Today, with a staff of 50 and a volunteer network that contributes 8,289 hours per year, Fourth Street Clinic is an AAAHC Patient Center Medical Home that serves 4,700 homeless men, women and children with over 30,000 medical, mental health, substance abuse, dental, and case management visits.

Fourth Street Clinic kicked off 2014 with the official opening of the dental clinic and expanded medical facilities. Patient-centered teams at the clinic were also expanded to include specialists that screen patients during their primary care visit to evaluate the need for mental-health and substance-abuse services.

The clinic served 12% more patients and provided comprehensive health care through 20% more patient visits compared to 2013. This was due in part to the additional resources and space at the clinic, and in part to the coordinated effort of community partners and over 8,200 hours from volunteer providers. These partnerships strengthen the resources of Fourth Street Clinic to address the range of health-related challenges that contribute to and result from homelessness. But more importantly, these partnerships multiply the economic and social impact in our community.

The commitment to providing comprehensive care extends beyond the walls of Fourth Street Clinic through collaborations with volunteer providers and community partners. Intermountain Healthcare, for example, helped to arrange hospital stays and medical care for homeless patients who needed intensive treatment. Once patients were released from the hospital, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints funded motel stays so patients could receive respite care services that would have been unmanageable in a homeless shelter.

Thank you to all of our committed partners, dedicated volunteers, and generous donors who help us to bring health care to homeless Utahns and to make a deeper social and economic impact in our community.

Community Partners and Volunteers are key to Fourth Street Clinic to be able to continue to provide quality health care for homeless Utahns.

Fourth Street Clinic operates at a 60:40 cash to in-kind ratio thanks to donated medicines, supplies and volunteer services.

Discounts and off-site service donations further expand community leveraging.

- In-kind dentures valued at $13,253.12
- ALSCO in-kind supplies $34,197
- $532,863 Intermountain Healthcare in radiology
- For 2014, we received $3,810 in discounts at local motels used for respite care
- Other partners donated specialty exams, hospital stays and surgeries

Every Wednesday, volunteers Dr. Susan Berkebile, her husband, Dr. Les Lang, and Sunny Howell run the Fourth Street Clinic outreach program at Weigand Homeless Resource Center.

Several years ago, Susan had been inspired by the film “The Year of Living Dangerously.” As she says, “the film was about taking care of the suffering you see right in front of you. I kept thinking about that and ended up volunteering at Fourth Street Clinic for a few years. Then my husband Les and I began talking about projects we could do together. We had several discussions about outreach and decided that [the Weigand Center] would be the place.”

“We started with just a little office and a few chairs. Fourth Street Clinic later helped us with the space and an exam room, a table, a computer, and now it’s much more like a real clinic for our patients. Our experience has been wonderful.”
